This filly is a granddaughter of Valiant Hero (SI 105) who has won $668,633 and has $32.9 million of progeny earnings and is #13 in the all time leading sires. Her grand dam on her top side was the top producing race broodmare in AQHA history. On her dam side she goes back to Leo and Poco Bueno so she will make a very versatile prospect. She was a dark buckskin when she was born but has roaned out since. I will provide a color correction.

Big, tall, gentle, and a huge stop. Chex has a big, pretty mane and tail and would be a good colt to progress on as he has no buck, kick or any "mean" to him. Chex wants to be your friend and do good, with that attitude he would be a good colt for an intermediate rider that has instruction to continue his training, or for someone to keep around and make a VRH horse or head horse. Chex is easy going and will make a good family horse one day.

He is a proven breeder hand or pasture and produces color. Twister is broke to ride and have been using him on a large cow-calf operation roping and doctoring calves in the pasture and feed lots. Extremely quiet and easy to have around. Exceptional manners, a true gentleman. He has been handled daily and requires no maintenance. 100% sound. Young kids walk him around everywhere. He is the total package, amazing genetics, mind and correct structure, ready to finish anyway you decide. We are in the process of getting a color change to red roan. She used him for rodeos (barrels and poles), play days and trail rides. He is gentle under saddle and has a rocking horse style lope. More whoa than go for a thoroughbred but he can go. He has a great stop and loves people. He will come when he's called by name or a whistle. Gus has been a good confidence boost for our rider but unfortunately they do not click. He has shoes on all four feet because he has thin soles. He does well for farrier. Gus does occasionally pull back when tied. He does great with a pull back halter and will come with his. He is UTD on shots and coggins. Gus is looking for his forever home with someone who wants to spend time with a great guy.

Cash is a beautiful 3 year old 14.1 unregistered gelding. Cash has been through the Fundamental and Intermediate Ground Work Series. Cash loads, stands tied, gets along with other horses and has great ground manners. Cash is a very fast learner and wants to please. Cash is uncomfortable with a back cinch and spurs and will buck whenever used on him. I had approximately 12 rides on him and he did throw me off. Hopefully, cash can overcome this and be the fantastic horse I believe he can be. He has a natural low headed top line with a smooth trot and lope. I was told by previous owner that he is all cow bred. Cash has been vet checked and confirmed as a 3 year old. Current on all vaccinations, trimmed and worming.

OWNER: KEN SCHIENBEIN

Good-looking, stout, 12-year-old paint, draft, quarter pony, big enough for adults. He rides like a big horse and can cover some ground. Smooth, quiet, and fun to ride. Been used to work cattle, trail ridden through northern Mississippi trails and rivers, Minnesota trails. He walks over tarps, logs, poles with no problem. Doesn't shy away from anything. He is very friendly, good on the ground with kids and has been used for leadline with them. Prefers riding trail or pasture; doesn't care for the arena work. He is a good looking, stout little horse. 100% sound.
