

Lolli Taxidermy Sale Frequently Asked Questions:

How does it all work????

Sellers-

I have a trophy collection that I don't want or need any longer. What do I do now?

Email a list of inventory and photos to Lolli Bros. They can be group shots or individual pictures. Please include your contact information and where the collection is located.

Where do I send pictures and/or a list of inventory?

Email the information to lolibros@lolibros.com or mail to 704 Main St. Suite A, Macon, MO 63552

When do you have the auctions?

We have sales 4 times per year. April, July, September & December

How do I get the trophies to the Lolli sale facility?

Lolli Bros. has trucks that go all over the country to pick up your consignments. Transport fees will be deducted from the proceeds of the consignment. This fee will be based on distance and percentage of trailer space needed.

You can also bring your collection directly to Lolli Bros. We have staff available to assist with unloading and inventorying your collection once it arrives. Please call ahead to make arrangements.

I only have a few taxidermy mounts. What if I don't have an entire collection? Can I sell just a piece or two?

We accept consignments from 1 to 1000+ pieces.

When will I receive payment for the collection?

Checks will be available the day of sale if you are present. Can't make it to the sale? Checks will be mailed to the name and address provided approximately 1 week following the auction date.

What will be deducted out of the check?

Lolli Bros. will deduct a percentage as commission for selling your items. Standard commission is 20%. Any transportation costs will also be deducted. Both of these items will be included in the taxidermy contract provided prior to the sale of your consignment.

What types of pieces can I consign?

Lolli Bros. holds auctions of all types. We sell taxidermy- anything from horns to full body mounts. We sell collectibles and décor pieces including artwork, statues, furniture, artifacts and much more. We also have special East Fork Guns & Collectibles auctions for guns and ammunition as well as cowboy collectibles and historical artifacts.

Does Lolli's buy collections outright?

Occasionally collections can be purchased for a lump sum. However, to get the most money for your collection, we recommend simply consigning them items and selling them to the highest bidder.
